ATTACKS WILSON AND TAFT

Saginaw, Mich., Oct. 8.—Into appare a friendly territory came Col. Re velt to-day to open up his campaig the Middle West. With sest the form President swung through the State fro

Detroit to this city ringing out danus-ciation of his opponents and meeting with a rousing response everywhere. The Wilson managers confidently have been putting Michigan in their column but from word that came to the Roose special train to-day the Democrati ahead of time. Michigan is awakened, the Roosevelt political sharps say and will turn up a majority of 75,000 for the

The third party candidate never was in The third party candidate never was in a more aggressive fighting trim than to-day, and he went at the battle as though he saw victory ahead. He sailed into Gov. Wilson in his opening speech at Detroit and did not let up all day long. Roosevelt did not overlook getting in a few digs at President Taft. Also, he rapped James Gordon Bennett, proprietor of the New York Herald, which has camitted Roosevelt's name from its cell-

Attacks Wilson's Theories.

Both in his speeches at Detroit and here to-night Roosevelt enunciated the Progressive party's theory of controlling the industrial corporations. He attacked the Democratic candidate's idea of limiting the power of the government over orporations as spreading the vicious grip of the trusts.

"Until the people definitely understand that the direct reverse of what Mr. Wilson has said in his theory of trust trol is true." thundered the colonel, "the people now work in our industries will prevail. We cannot get better working conditions, shorter hours, the minimum conditions, shorter hours, the minimum wage for women, or general enforcement of employers' liability if we are to put into effect the vague ideas of Mr. Wilson. As to Mr. Taft, he is even less definite and offers not the shadow of solution to the industrial problem."

The colonel dug up Gov. Wilson's address to the New Jersey Legislature last winter in his speech at Detroit to Impress the difference between the Progressive party and its two antagonists. "In his address to the Legislature of his own State the Governor said he was interested and encouraged," said the Colonel."—those are his words—to find that onel,"—those are his words—to find that there was a substantial agreement be-tween the platform of the Democratic and Republican parties in New Jersey.

Jumps Two Old Parties. 'Now, Mr. Wilson has complained of ne when I have said that the Demo cratic and Republican parties nationally stand for the same thing in this cam-paign. It is perfectly true, as he says, that the two old parties are undivided when it comes to anything but fictitious and unreal issues. The two old parties and unreal issues. The two old parties are reactionary. They go together in their boss alignment.

"In this campaign there are three parties and but two sides. It is a fight between the privilege controlled parties—Democratic and Repblican—on one side. Democratic and Repblican—on one side and the Progressive party against them."
The huge crowd which followed Roosevelt closely let loose a terrific cheer at this, and a voice boomed out, "You'll put them out in November, Colonel!"
The Colonel caught the crowd again when he adverted to "The fight of the bosses in control of the Republican party now in power against the bosses back of the Democratic party who seek power."
Leaving Detroit Mr. Roosevelt spoke from the rear platform of his car at from the rear platform of his car at Plymouth and Holly. At Flint the Colonel was taken through an automobile plant.

Two Lawyers Appear in Case and One Admits Being Hired by "Outside Parties."

WOMAN GIVES EVIDENCE

New York, Oct. 8.—Out of the back-ground of mysteries that shadow the murder of "Big Jack" Zellg, as it shad-ows the killing of Herman Rosenthal, appeared suddenly to-day two attor-neys to defend "Red Phil" Davidson

Zelig's slayer,
They came after Davidson himself had pleaded his poverty and his friendliness and had asked the court to give him counsel. They were not appointed by the court.

The lawyers are Alexander Karlin and M. A. Busch. They are men little known. Karlin defended a negro woman in the Reynolds white slave investigation.

He made two interesting statements to-day. The first was, "We have been retained by outside parties; just whom. I am not at liberty to state."

The other was to the effect that "Red Phil" Davidson's defense would embrace a firm denial that any one instigated—a strong contradiction of the dramatic story of Pauline Fuchs, who declared that five sinister characters of the clared that five sinister characters of the orld had inspired "Red Phil" Karlin would not outline his intended case definitely, but it was intimated that there might be grounds for the hope of convincing a jury that Davidson killed Zelig during a fit of impulsive insanity due to him having been blackjacked and Pauline Fuchs, now under release it family in Brooklyn, where she had obfamily in Brooklyn, where she had obtained employment, will probably tell her story of the Davidson case to-morrow to Charles G. F. Wahle, who was counsel for Zelig and for the four gunmen now in prison. If her story of the plot to kill Zelig is corroborated she is likely to be a witness of powerful influence, not coly against Davidson, who is said to to be a witness of powerful influence, pot only against Davidson, who is said to have lived on her earnings, but against the men higher up in the plot.

Along Second Avenue to-day many were found ready to confirm the truth of the woman's statement, but none dared give his name as sponsor for the matter.

While the district attorney's office show-only against the district attorn ed keen interest in delving to the pits of motive behind the Zelig murder, Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty declared
